INTRODUCTION

More than twenty-five years ago I began gathering data on the Stookey genealogy. Up to last year I did not know anything about my ancestry farther back than my great-grand-father, Daniel Stookey, born March 16, 1773. Came to Illinois in 1802. The Stookeys are of German descent. Daniel Stookey I brought his German Bible with him. It is still in the possession of Charles A. Stookey, Sr., Belleville, Ill., R. 1.

In July and August 1935 I made a trip to Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland and West Virginia with the expectation of obtaining information. My trip was crowned with success. Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Yerick had found the will of my great great-grand father Simon Stookey II, at the Court House at Hagerstown, Washington County, M. D. It was in the oldest book of wills on record there. The will is printed verbatim in this book. Mrs. Yerick gave me a copy of the will. I am indebted to Melvin A. Stookey for all the record I have about Simon Stookey I, that settled at New Rochelle, N. Y. in 1685.

I have used every possible means to get all information possible about Daniel Stookey's I, family and if I have not succeeded I do not think it was my fault. For the past three months I have worked nearly all the time on this genealogy. I am out quite a good deal of money, but if the descendants of Daniel Stookey I, will appreciate my humble efforts I will consider myself amply compensated.

Yours truly,

Walter C. Stookey

Belleville, Illinois, R. 1.

I, Walter C. Stookey, being duly sworn, do depose and say that to the best of my knowledge and belief all the facts contained in this little booklet are true and correct.

Walter C. Stookey.

Subscribed and sworn to in my presence this 28th day of April, 1936

Elmer Beattie, Notary Public.

The data for this booklet was gathered by Charles A. Stookey and Walter C. Stookey and was compiled and written by Walter C. Stookey.

WILLIAM L. STOOKEY

DANIEL STOOKEY I. HOMESTEAD

Built in 1802—As it appeared in 1835.

CHAPTER 1.

GENEALOGY OF SIMON STOOKEY I.; SIMON STUCKEY II., AND THE DANIEL STOOKEY BRANCH OF THE STOOKEY FAMILY FROM 1685 TO 1936.

Simon Stookey I. settled at New Rochelle, N. Y., north-east of New York city, on Long Island Sound in 1685.

This record is taken from the French Huguenots or Hollander's Church records of New Rochelle, N. Y.

The name was spelled Stookey at that time. The name has been spelled ten different ways, viz.: Stucky, Stookey, Stuckey, Stooke, Stuck, Stich, Stick, Stock, and in Switzerland Stucki. The name was spelled Stookey by Daniel Stookey, my great-grand-father, and his brother Abraham that settled in Ross County, O., and all of their descendants. Their father Simon II and the other three brothers.

Jacob, that settled in Berkely Co., then Virginia, now West Virginia; Samuel that settled in Stark Co., O. and Simon III. that settled in Bedford Co., Pa. and all their descendants spelled their name Stuckey. It seems that Simon II. is the only one that spelled his name Stuckey of the branch of which I am writing the genealogy.

SIMON STUCKEY II.

Simon Stuckey II. son of Simon Stookey I., settled in Virginia in 1755. He married Barbara Fox. Of this union the following children were born:

- 1—Jacob Stuckey, born March 3, 1761
- 2—Susannah Stuckey, born March 4, 1761
(Twins)
- 3—Charles Stuckey, born December 6, 1762
- 4—Samuel Stuckey, born November 6, 1764
- 5—Abram Stookey, born July 6, 1767
- 6—David Stuckey, born February 1769
- 7—Margaret Stuckey, born July 1770
- 8—Catherine Stuckey, born January 21, 1772
- 9—Simon Stuckey, born March 16, 1773
- 10—Daniel Stookey, born September 1775
- 11—John Stuckey, born July 1777
- 12—Elizabeth Stuckey, born February 27, 1779
- 13—Maria Stuckey, born

Jacob Stuckey settled in what is now Berkley County, West Virginia, then Hardy County, Virginia; Samuel settled in Stark County, Ohio; Simon Stuckey in Bedford County, Pennsylvania and Daniel Stookey in St. Clair County, Illinois. The Daniel Stookey branch is the branch that I am endeavoring to give the complete genealogy of. Tradition has it that two Stuckey boys one ten and the other six were stolen by the Indians from Virginia. The ten year old returned but the six year old stayed with the Indians. There are Stuckeys in the Wyandotte tribe that are supposed to be descendants of the six year old Stuckey boy. These two boys are supposed to have been brothers or cousins of Jacob, Samuel, Abram, Simon and Daniel. The Indians spell the name Stuckee.

This tradition is in extent from a letter written by Captain John Stuckey of Hardyville, Nebraska.

Simon Stuckey's II. will was found at Hagerstown, Washington Co., M. D. in 1935. It is in the oldest book of will recorded there. The will was made December 26, 1785 and recorded February 4, 1786.

A copy of the will was given me by Mrs. Frank M. Yerick of 511 W. Burke St., Martinsburg, West Virginia. I will give a copy of the will verbatim. (Simon Stuckey's II. will, Liber. A. Page 127, Records at Hagerstown, Washington Co., M. D. Court House.

In the presence of God, Amen. I, Simon Stuckey, of Washington Co., in the State of Maryland, being in perfect health of body and of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof, and being desirous to settle my worldly affairs and thereby be better prepared to leave this world, when it shall please God to call me hence, do therefore make and publish this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say:

First and principally I commit my soul into the hands of Almighty God and my body to the earth, to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter named, and after my death and funeral charges are paid and my wife's third is taken out, I desire and bequeath as follows:

I bequeath and give to my dear wife all my real and personal estate as long as she remains a widow and after her death or marriage, my Executors or such persons hereafter appointed, are to dispose of my real and personal estate by public sale and the money arising from such sale to be equally divided among all and everyone of my children, Seventy (70) pounds to be paid to my wife upon her marriage and two cows and a calf to be given to my daughter Susan by my Executors, or other persons hereafter mentioned, and lastly I do hereby constitute and appoint my dear wife Barbara Stuckey and George Shaver to be Executors of this my last will and testament. In case they should die before this my last will can be put in execution, I do also appoint Jacob Stuckey and Samuel Stuckey, my eldest sons to dispose of my real and personal estate and make distribution in manner and form as mentioned above, my Executors should do by an equal division of my estate among my children. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 26th day of December, 1785.

Witness, John Barne, Jacob Robert, Geo. Helson. (Seal)

On the back of the original will of the said Simon Stuckey are the following words, to wit:

Washington County, Feb. 4, 1786 came Barbara Stuckey and solemnly declared and affirmed that at the time she came George Shaver and made oath that the within instrument of writing is the true and whole will and testament of Simon Stuckey, late of said County, Deceased, that both come to their hands, or possession and that they do not know of any other. And at the same time came Jacob Stuckey and George Helson (Helson) two of the Executors named in the within last will and testament of Simon Stuckey, late of said County, deceased and solemnly declared and affirmed that they did see the within named Sign and seal and that they heard him say, pronounce and declare the same to be his last will and testament, that at the time of his so doing he was to the best of their knowledge of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding and that they have lawfully subscribed their names as witnesses to this will in the presence and at the request of the testator and in the presence of each other and that they saw Jno. Barnes do the same. Recorded February 4, 1786.

I judge Charles, David, John and Margaret died before their father did, as their names were not given in his will.

I do not know where any of the daughters lived. Susannah married a man by the name of Benter. Rebecca married a man by the name of Miller and Eliza and Mary married men by the names of Jones and Painter but I do not know which married Jones and which married Painter.

CHAPTER XII.

STOOKEY CENTENNIAL RE-UNION 1902

The descendant of Daniel Stookey held a re-union at the old Daniel Stookey homestead, two miles west of Belleville, Illinois, September 11, 1902 commemorating the coming of Daniel Stookey, his wife Barbara Whetstone Stookey and their two sons, Simon and Moses Stookey to what is now St. Clair County, Illinois in the year 1802. This re-union was held in the timber about one hundred yards west of the Stookey cemetery, where Daniel Stookey, I, his wife, Barbara Whetstone Stookey and their two sons, Simon and Moses were buried. The arrangement committee for this centennial celebration was Moses Monroe Stookey, chairman; Walter C. Stookey, secretary, and Lewis C. Stookey, Charles A. Stookey and Charles D. Stookey. Those that took part on the program were as follows: Daniel Stookey of Decatur, Illinois; Orren V. Stookey of Chicago, Illinois; D. W. Stookey of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Loren H. Green, of Jacksonville, Florida and M. W. Weir and Abraham Gooding of Belleville made addresses. Alonzo J. Stookey read a paper prepared by his mother, Jemima Child Stookey of Clover, Utah. A musical program was rendered by Professor and Mrs. S. M. Lutz of Decatur, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Stookey of Hannibal, Illinois; Miss Huddie Stookey of Godfrey, Illinois; R. Ford Lemen of East St. Louis, Illinois and Miss Sophie Weir, Marshall Weir, Miss May Stookey, Miss Almira Gooding and John and Sherman Stookey of Belleville, Illinois.

Only two of the arrangement committee are alive at present: Charles A. Stookey and Walter C. Stookey.

It is estimated that there were over two hundred descendants of Daniel Stookey, I, present on this occasion.
